

Dan Debicella for Congress Retains TMKG; Connecticut Congressional District amongst the most Competitive Races in 2010 Mid-Term Elections

For Immediate Release

WASHINGTON, D.C. (June 9, 2010) – The Macsata-Kornegay Group, Inc. (TMKG) today announced that it has been retained by the “Debicella for Congress” campaign committee to manage his political action committee (PAC) fundraising strategies. On May 21st, Dan Debicella won 77 percent of the vote during the Republican Party Convention for Connecticut’s 4th Congressional District, and is now the presumed nominee. Debicella quickly signed TMKG in an effort to raise the necessary campaign funds to successfully compete in the 2010 mid-term elections.

“Dan’s campaign has generated a lot of excitement and interest in Connecticut because he’s proven to be a competitive, personable candidate, as well as a prolific fundraiser,” said TMKG’s Partner, Amanda Kornegay. “TMKG is honored to join the Debicella team and represent a candidate who has a long track record of improving the quality of life for Connecticut families.”

Dan Debicella is serving his second term as the State Senator from Connecticut’s 21st District, which includes Stratford, Shelton, Monroe, and Seymour. As a State Senator, he has successfully used his business and community experience to have a positive impact on Connecticut and the communities he represents. Learn more about Dan Debicella online at <http://www.debicella.com>.

To learn more, please visit TMKG online at <http://www.macsata-kornegay.org>, or contact Brandon M. Macsata by phone at (305) 519-4256 or email at brandon@macsata.org.

####

About TMKG: The Macsata-Kornegay Group, Inc. is now nationally known for its consulting services specializing in grassroots campaigns, media messaging and political fundraising. TMKG provides a wide array of professional consultation on public policy, communications, marketing strategies and media relations. The firm also offers grassroots advocacy training to better engage organizations in the legislative process.

About Dan Debicella: Dan Debicella grew up in Bridgeport and Shelton. Dan has led a successful business career, from management consulting, to running a small business to working for a Fortune 500 company. He spent five years as a management consultant for McKinsey & Co., where he advised Fortune 500 companies on sales and marketing issues. He also ran his own small Internet business, Textbooks Online, during the high tech boom of the late 1990’s. Dan is also involved with numerous community organizations. He is a lifelong member of St. Lawrence Parish in Shelton. Dan lives in Shelton with his wife Alexandra.